Explore the life cycle of cats with this simple yet touching picture book. Beautifully and skillfully told with straightforward, sweet illustrations, Big Cat, Little Cat tells the story of a cat who lives alone until a kitten comes to live at the same house. The cat teaches the kitten all it knows; the two grow older together and become great friends, until the cat goes away and doesn't come back.

Big Cat, Little Cat (stylized as BIG CAT, little cat) is a 2017 children's picture book written by Elisha Cooper. It was published by Roaring Brook Press, a subsidiary of Macmillan Books. In the story, a large, white cat welcomes a new black cat into a family.
The white cat then dies, and the cycle begins anew when the family adopts a new kitten. Cooper was inspired to write the story after his family experienced a similar situation.

Big Cat Little Cat was a favorite at Annie Blooms from the start in part because we have a black shop cat Molly Bloom who is beloved of the whole neighborhood. I like it for all the reasons stated above. It's the sort of book we will probably always keep in the shop because it elegantly meets an ongoing need.
