The Duke Knight Miscellany 1 Gaelen Foley

The thirty-five-year-old Robert Knight, ninth duke of Hawkscliffe, appeared unaware of his approach, stony and immobile as the monument. He stood in bleak granite stillness, the rain plastering his wavy black hair to his forehead, running in chilly rivulets down the stark planes of his cheeks, and dripping off his rugged profile as he stared down at the yellow daffodils that had been planted on her grave.

The Duke (Knight Miscellany #1) - Gaelen Foley

The premise of the Knight Miscellany is that their mother was a scandalous Duchess of the Georgian age, who had many lovers apart from her haughty husband, the Duke, from different walks of life: a Shakespearean actor; a celebrity prize fighter; and her true love, a mysterious marquess. The heroes and heroines of this series are the now-grown children who resulted from the "Hawkscliffe Harlot's" various liaisons.
